

Access to e-Submission System (ESS)

1.	Who needs to have access to ESS?
	All listed issuers, listing applicants companies and sponsors that wish to submit announcements or other documents (including Application Proofs/ PHIPs/ statements made under Main Board Rule 9.02(2)(c) or GEM Rule 12.10(2)(c)) for publication on the HKEXnews website on behalf of a listed issuer or a listing applicant should register for access to ESS. Non-listed companies that are required to publish announcements or other documents under the Takeovers Code on the HKEX website should also register for access to ESS.
2.	Why can't I access the ESS website?
	Please ensure that the URL for ESS (https://www1.esubmission.hkex.com.hk) is typed correctly. If you still cannot access ESS, please try checking the pages of other websites. If you cannot access other websites, you should contact your internal IT department for assistance. If you can access the other websites but not able to access the ESS website or login to ESS, please call ESS hotline (+ 852 2840 3460) for assistance.
3.	I am a new registered ESS user. Are there any training materials provided in relation to the use of ESS?
	Yes. The Exchange has provided the following training materials, quick reference guides and user manuals on the designated webpage at HKEX website (https://www.hkex.com.hk/Listing/Rules-and-Guidance/eSubmission-System?sc_lang=en):- • Interactive e-Learning Program – a web-based simulation tool providing interactive guides to cover major ESS user functions; • Video Tutorials – videos for demonstrating the use of major ESS user functions; • Quick Reference Guides – a step by step guide for major ESS user functions; and • User Manuals – a detailed guide on all ESS user functions.
4.	What are the operational hours of ESS?
	The operational hours of ESS on a business day will be between 6.00 a.m. and 11.00 p.m. On a non-business day immediately preceding a business day, ESS will be available between 6.00 p.m. and 8.00 p.m. In order to enable HKEX to perform system maintenance work, login to ESS is prohibited other than its operational hours. A submission for publication can be made whenever ESS is operational. However, the Listing Rules prohibit the publication of Announcements and Notices (certain headline categories with exception) outside designated publication windows.
